

Bamboo — Crafts, Culture and Cultivation

Saturday - Sunday
May 16 - 17, 2009

Saturday: 9:30 am to 4 pm — Sunday: 10 am to 2 pm
In the UC Santa Cruz Arboretum Horticulture Building

*Bambusa
arundinacea*

Classroom & Field Lectures Include

- Bamboo types suited to our Central Coast climate
- Drought-resistance, practical use & bio-remediation
- Planting & design in landscape
- Slide presentation on artistic uses of bamboo
- Maintaining bamboo, pruning & thinning existing stands and groves
- Sunday field workshop--identification & hands-on pruning

Instructor Karl Bareis

- Founder of International Bamboo Association (now WBO)
- Board member & past-president of N. California Chapter-- American Bamboo Society
- Japan resident for 10 years--traditional apprenticeship in Japanese building and architecture
- Organizer of bamboo expeditions with the Southwest Forestry College, Yunnan, China

Cost is $80, General Public. $75 for Arboretum Members. $70, Students with ID.
Class is a benefit for the UCSC Arboretum, limited to 30.
PRE-REGISTER for the class now to UCSC Arboretum —
Phone (831) 427-2998 or email: arboretum@ucsc.edu

The Arboretum is located on Empire Grade in Santa Cruz, half way between the main and west entrances to the UC Santa Cruz Campus.

